

Management Advance Diploma in Materials Management

Management Advance Diploma in Materials Management (ADMM) is a Diploma level course. Material Management is a process of planning, organizing and controlling all activities related to the flow of materials into an organization. It encompasses the importance of material management and Industry is giving special focus on vendor management and procurement. It enables the candidate to understand how the cost of material can make the industry competitive. It also helps the participants to understand that this function also can increase the profitability of a business organization. It is a program which should be done by candidates who want to understand the importance of materials department in an organization and develop themselves as able managers in this ever-growing business function

Advance Diploma in Materials Management (ADMM) Syllabus

Syllabus of Materials Management as prescribed by various Universities and Colleges.

Sr. No.	Subjects of Study
1	Purchase & Material Management
2	Inventory Management
3	Operation Management
4	Supply Chain Management